

MADELEINE CLARK

Grower
Green Goddess Organics
Salinas, California

After obtaining her Bachelor of Science Degree in Graphic Communications – Business from California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo, Madeleine founded Western Graphics, a printing company in 1981. Having spent over 25 years working in public relations, advertising, marketing and graphic communications, she retired from the printing business in 2003 and has most recently devoted her time and efforts to numerous Rotary as well as local and international community service.

Madeleine has taken a proactive stance in promoting women in business; public service organizations; local charities and special projects. Madeleine founded the Salinas Valley Business Women’s Network in 1986 and was the recipient of the Salinas Area Chamber of Commerce Business Woman of the Year in 1987. Her extensive skills as both a writer and public speaker have benefited several successful endeavors from assistance to international service organizations to legislative advocacy and community outreach projects.

Madeleine was a key player of a Rotary International humanitarian mission that financed procurement of desperately needed cardiac medical equipment for Irapuato General Hospital in Guanajuato, Mexico, that was called the Mexico Medical Mission. She served as Chair of the Mexico Connection Committee through Rotary Club of Castroville, California

Madeleine is the founder of Green Goddess Organics which just started in 2008, as a community supported sustainable farming organization. Besides this current project, she maintains her long-standing professional and personal involvement and dedication to her local Rotary, her Rotary District and Rotary International. Presently she serves as Chair for the Castroville Rotary First Tee Committee of Monterey County.
